Step right up Ladies and Gentlemen; Feast your eyes on that extravaganza, that show of shows, the Circus of Life!

Each performer is guaranteed to be a perfectionist. Give them a hand, folks! No matter what their origin, these are the faces that make us laugh or cry, feel lonely or loved. Each face is capable of changing its own appearance or mood, by painting on a new face, as a clown paints his. The Circus of Life requires but one thing of all it's performers: The Show Must Go On!

Becky,

What can I say, to the craziest person I know. You're really sweet, and I love to be around ya. Even if you do put snakes in my hair. You're a lot of fun in P.E., I wish that I had you in a lot more classes. I'm really glad I got to know ya, and I hope we can become even better friends.

Come back with us to the glorious, glittering age of the circus when pompous pagentry prevailed and fantastic feats of stratospheric sensationalism bedazzled and baffled the otherwise ordinary spectator.

We're gonna have to partyhardy sometime. When you're not out with Mike, if anyone can tear you away. Good luck

Hi cutie. . . .

You were the Freshman that I always looked forward to seeing last year. You are what people call an extrovert. This is A very good quality to possess. I wish you and mike the best of luck. True Love is. . . . unselfish Love; always Aiming for the good of the other person without thinking what I can get out of it. This last statement may be a little strange to write in a yearbook but I wanted to give you something worth while instead of a bunch of mush. But you are a person I call a friend.

Well Becky I am not for sure what to write, because I love you though I'll think of something. We've had some good times and some bad times. some times its hard for me to keep going with you but I set my mind to it and I keep right on going just loving you just like before. You are really very special to me and I dont want to loose you. I am sorry I am in bitchy moods sometimes but lots of times I just can't help it, especially when we fight or you say something you shouldn't say, like about girls.
I'll admit it I like looking at and fliting with other girls but that dont mean they are meaning more to me then you are. I really hope we stay together, and that things will go ok, but in case of fire which are our fights and other stuff someday we could end our relationship, which I hope don't happen.
Sometimes we really get along good but them times a fight just knocks the hell out of me, sometimes I am sure you are about ready to tell me to drop a cliff and sometimes I feel the same way. But me hanging on but just happened. I know ing to forget that we end up making up and I dont show my love for you like I really should but I try to make you relize I really ne you. I really want to thank you for ng all the things you do for me I really appreciate u doing all this for me. You a special person in g heart. When I look at other girls I know u get mad but I just can't help it, its not that I like them more then I do you its

Been a real blast except for after I took ya home and blanched ended up taken me home so any way carol told me to tell ya! but if I seen ya and was thought of tell ya but as that that and also if I had to go over the past year it would be the same way except for a few things and it would be that way.

some one to talk to listen and know

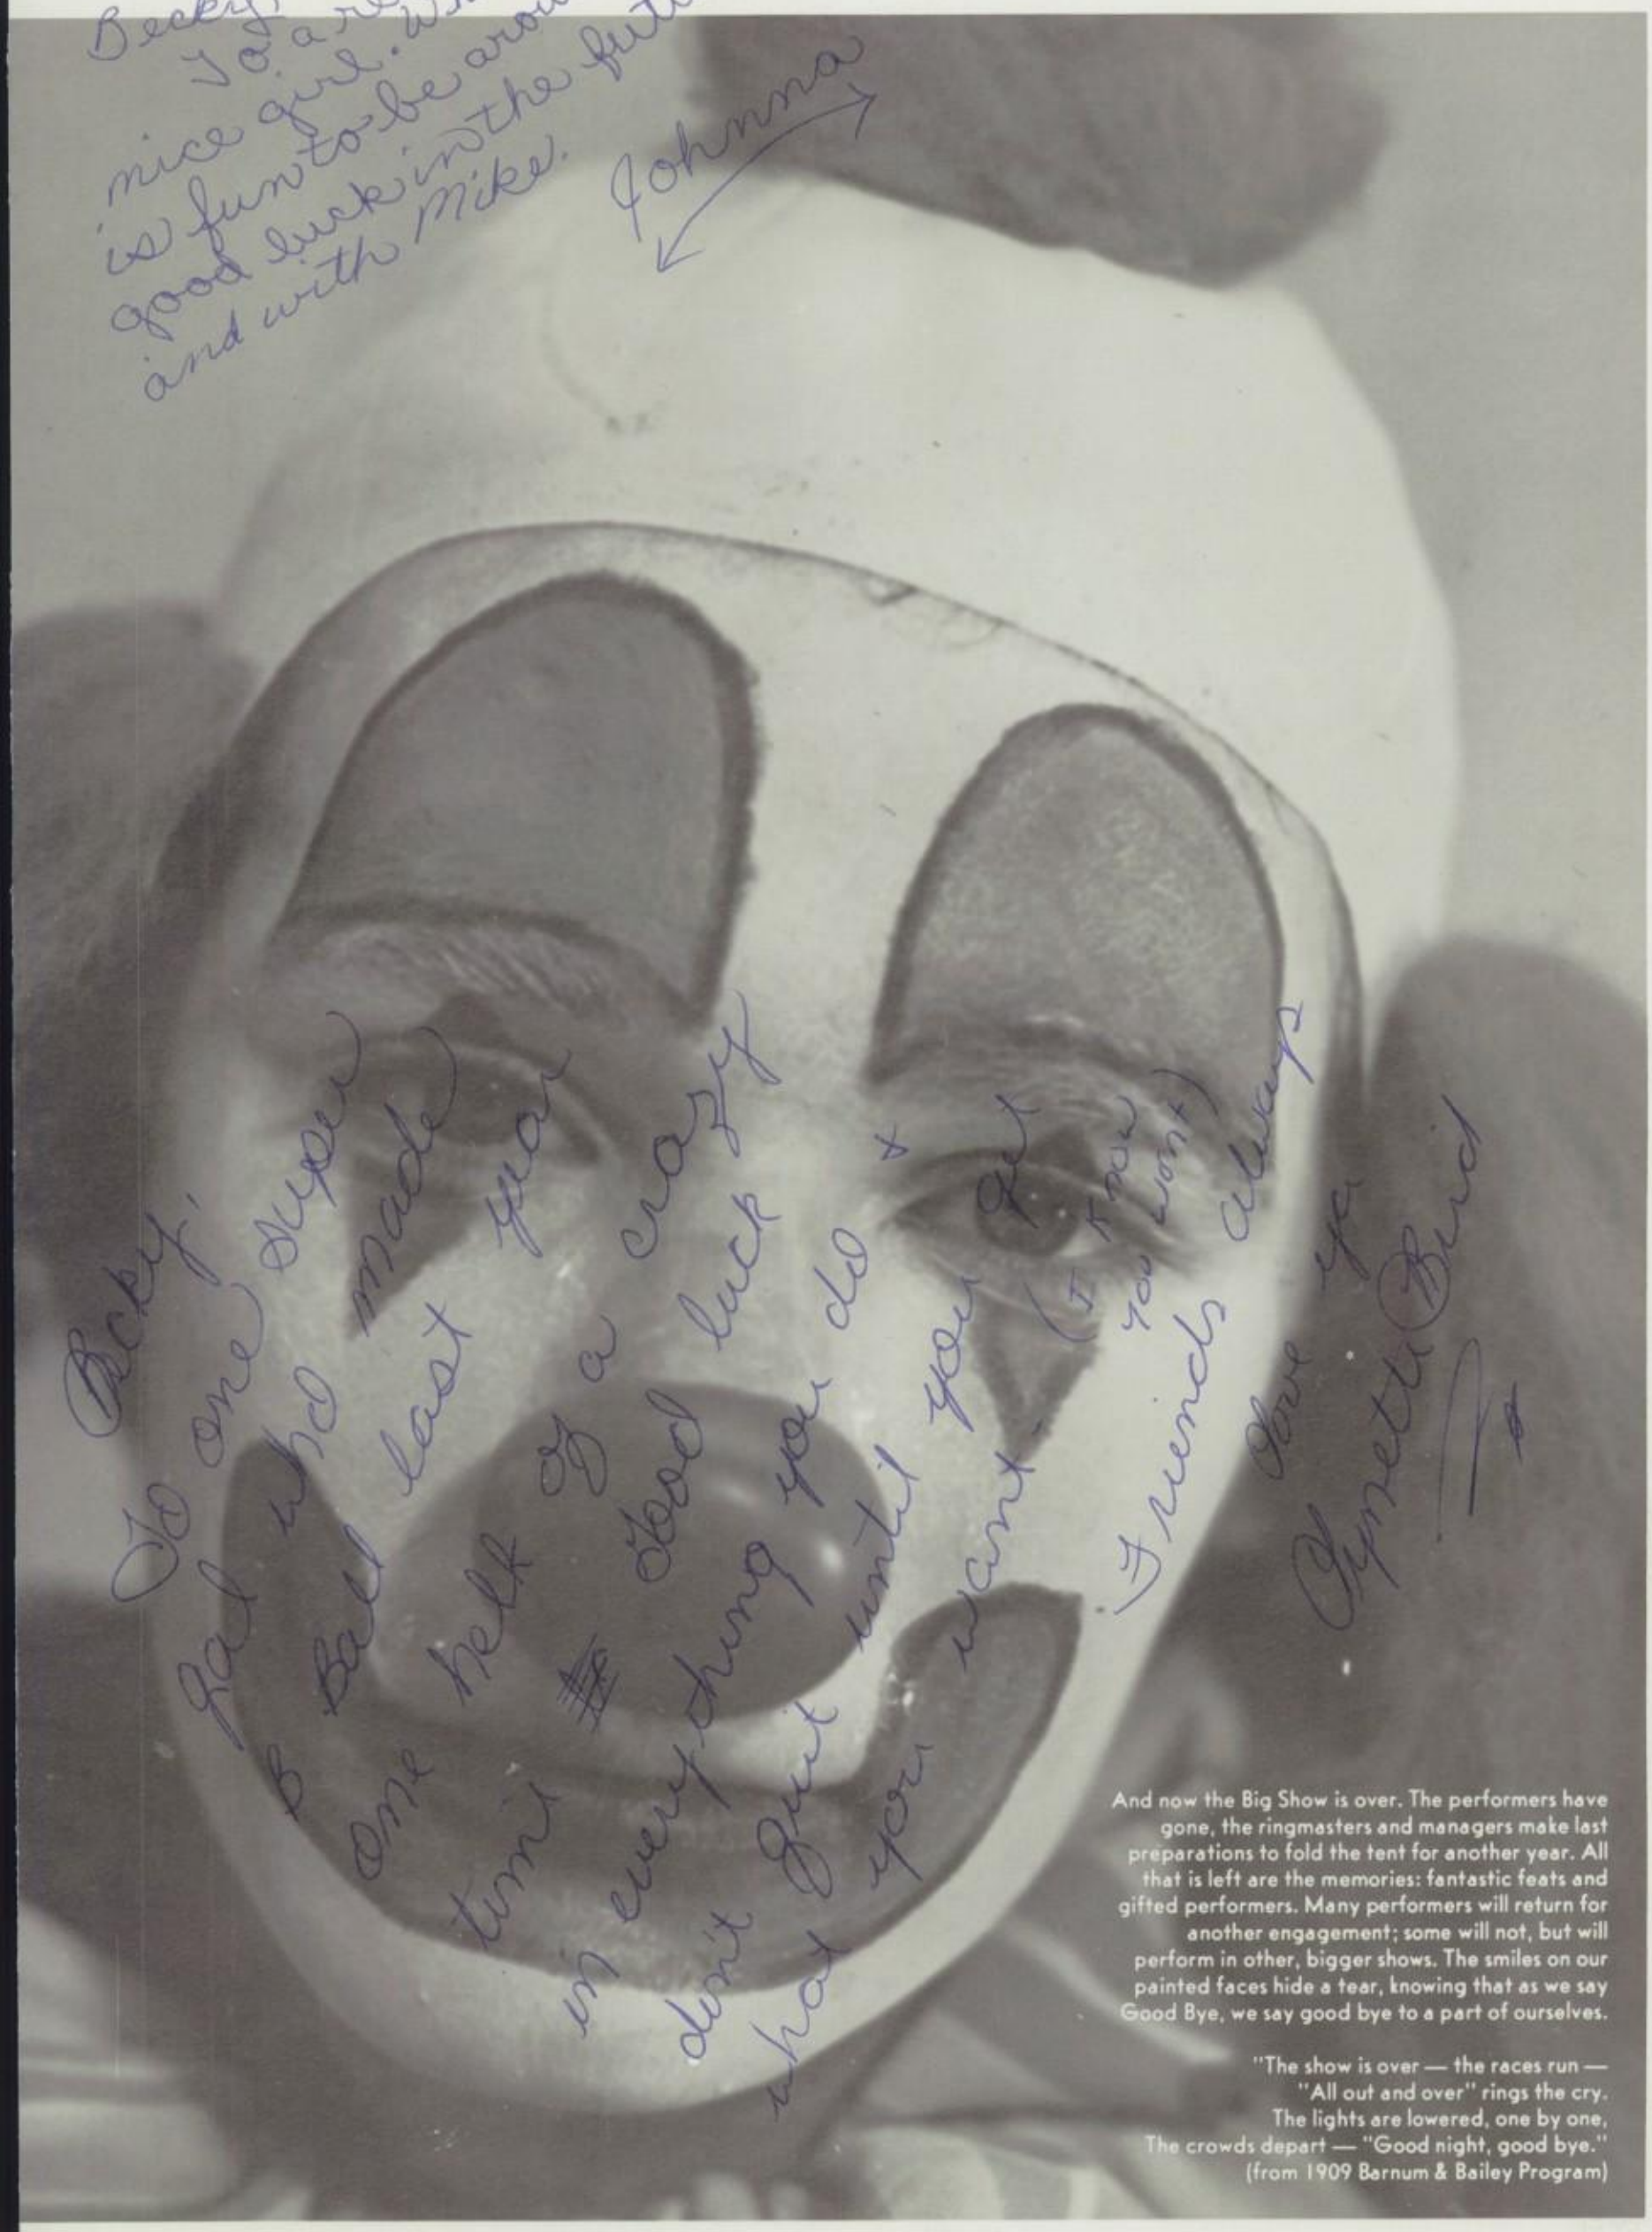
MARK ALLEN YODER



And now the Big Show is over. The performers have gone, the ringmasters and managers make last preparations to fold the tent for another year. All that is left are the memories: fantastic feats and gifted performers. Many performers will return for another engagement; some will not, but will perform in other, bigger shows. The smiles on our painted faces hide a tear, knowing that as we say Good Bye, we say good bye to a part of ourselves.

"The show is over — the races run —
"All out and over" rings the cry.
The lights are lowered, one by one,
The crowds depart — "Good night, good bye."
(from 1909 Barnum & Bailey Program)

~~Bec~~ Becky,

What can I say, we became good friends during track season our 8th grade year. I'm really glad we did, we had some fun times last year but I know this year we are going to have a lot more fun. Do you remember at my summer party last year we were telling each other what we wanted our future life to be, well I still want that and I hope you do too. Beck I hope you get every thing out of life that you want & I hope we never forget all the fun times in life because those are what we can look back on while we are sitting in our rocking chairs in Wyoming rocking the good times away. Well, I think your are one of the funniest gals I know and for that I'll never forget ya and I hope you neve forget me, so in the mean time kup your head up and kep smilin. I wish you and Mike all the luck in the world. Love ya friends always
